

" We need elected leaders who understand that tax revenues belong to the citizens not to bureaucrats and politicians. I have and will continue to stand with the homeowners and taxpayers of Frisco. I ask for your vote in this important election."

Scott Johnson

Scott Johnson's conservative record

- Opposed tax increases.
- Advocated spending cuts to balance city's budgets.
- Opposed 'Section 8 Housing'. Fought to protect property rights.
- Defends conservative values and promotes limited government.
- Supported sending the proposed Arts Hall back to the citizens for a vote.
- Pushed for increased transparency, accountability, and a stronger ethics code.
- Supported partnerships that added thousands of jobs in Frisco.

On May 14th Vote Scott Johnson for Frisco City Council, Place 6
Early Voting: May 2nd thru May 10th

On May 14th the Choice is Clear

When the economy was at its worst and many Frisco families were suffering and dealing with severe financial hardships—a tax increase was being debated by the Frisco City Council.

The two candidates in this year's Place 6 City Council race took two very different views on whether or not to increase taxes back in 2009.

E-MAIL

From: John Classe
Sent: Thursday, 9/17/2009 3:02 PM
To: Mayor and Council
Subject: Budget Adoption – FY 2010

"I am writing to share with you my support for an increase in the city's property tax rate..."

If John Classe would have been on the City Council he would have voted FOR a tax increase.

E-MAIL

From: Councilman Scott Johnson
Sent: Wednesday, 9/16/2009 11:02 PM
To: J. Bunch
Subject: Tax Increase

"I strongly believe that now is not the time to be asking more from our taxpayers. Our citizens are doing more with less on a daily basis – we should ask nothing less of our city government."

Councilman Scott Johnson voted against the tax increase.

Vote to Re-Elect Councilman Scott Johnson in Place 6